Of Fairfield College-Preparatory

1953 HEARTHSTONE

School | Fairfield, Connecticut

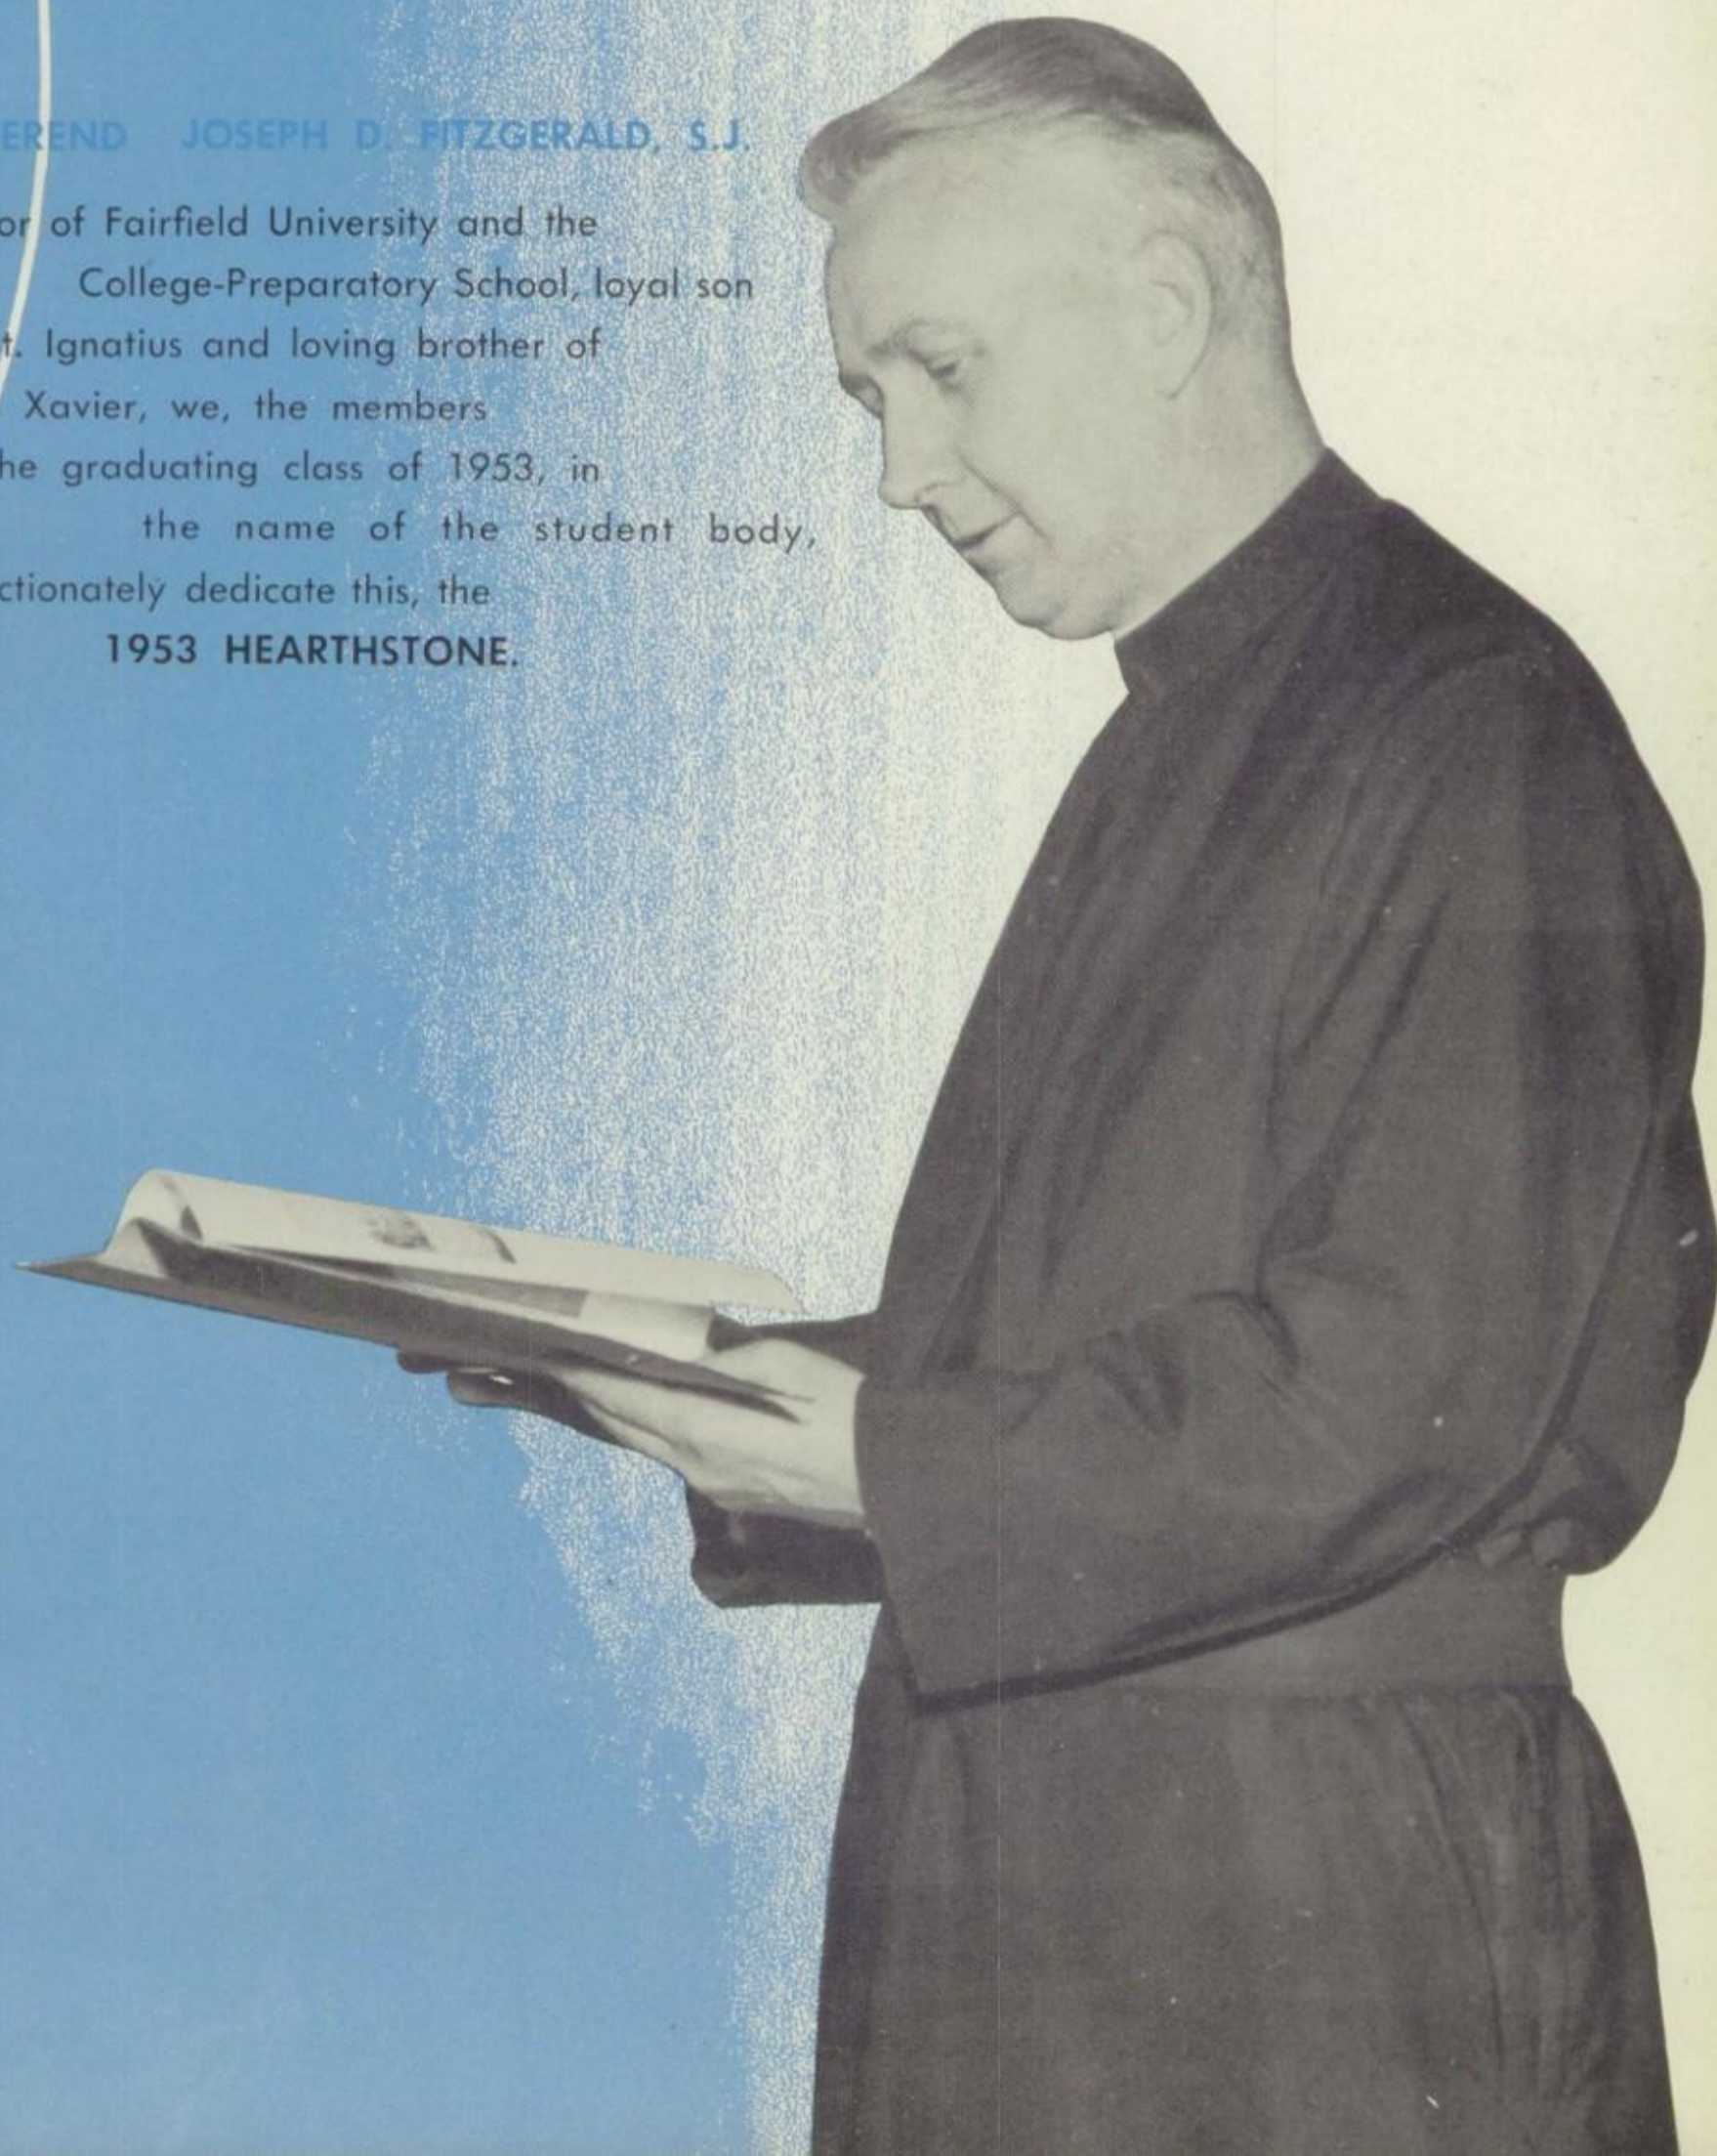

"All my life I shall feel strictly bound to beg God to protect you from every evil, to give you in this life grace and health for His holy service, and Paradise in the world to come."

St. Francis Xavier to one who had assisted his missionary labors.

VERY REVEREND JOSEPH D. FITZGERALD, S.J.

Rector of Fairfield University and the College-Preparatory School, loyal son of St. Ignatius and loving brother of St. Francis Xavier, we, the members of the graduating class of 1953, in the name of the student body, affectionately dedicate this, the
1953 HEARTHSTONE.

GOD'S GALLANT

Saint Francis Xavier

By FRANCIS XAVIER MATHEWS

Editor-in-Chief of the 1953 HEARTHSTONE

Heaven smiled down upon the hills of Goa, India, and flooded them with her sunlight. The massive sixteenth century cathedral looked out upon a sea of one hundred thousand faces. They were waiting—waiting for the appearance of the man who four hundred years before trod those same palm-dotted slopes. Now he came—God's humble man—amid a procession of seven hundred priests, scores of bishops, and the Cardinal Patriarch of Lisbon. From the Basilica of Bom Jesus through the hymn-singing throngs the procession accompanied the remarkably preserved body of the Apostle of the Indies to the cathedral. There, in an open silver casket, it was placed for public veneration. The day was December 3, 1952, another page in the great epic of Francis Xavier.

The work of man crumbles to dust. It is only the hand of God that can stay it from decay. That hand was in the work of St. Francis Xavier, so that his spirit still lives, and the seed he sowed ripens into eternal harvests. We of the Universal Church share in those harvests. Today we offer this humble tribute to the great Jesuit saint who four hundred years ago passed from this earth.

XAVIER THE STUDENT

We first see Francis, about 1526, as a man of twenty. That sudden gust, the Renaissance, had swept Spain and caught young Xavier up in its spirit. Ambition stirred his soul. A great plan was forming in his mind—visions of a university professorship, of a comfortable ecclesiastical position at Pamplona. His plan began at the University of Paris. Only God knew how soon all that would change. For God foresaw greater things for Xavier.

These greater things began in the form of a limping soldier, who arrived at the university leading a donkey laden with books. To Xavier fell the task of tutoring this man, Ignatius Loyola. Xavier the athlete, whose supple limbs could master the gymnastic dances of his Basque homeland, Xavier the student, whose mind was as facile as his body, met his match in a deliberate-thinking, limping soldier.

Ignatius began with the little sword thrusts that cut away Francis' pride. "What doth it profit a man, Francis, if he gain the whole world and lose his soul?" No, it was not that Francis was too ambitious. He was not ambitious enough. The Basque nobleman was not made for mediocrity.

Behind one great actor there is usually another. Such was Loyola to Xavier. Ignatius had himself recently experienced a spiritual reconversion and had written his "Spiritual Exercises" in retreat at the cave of Manresa. Because Francis was a man of remarkable will-power, he held out against Ignatius for years. But eventually the Great Lover caught up with him, and Francis, in giving in, gave himself completely. Amid the cancerous moral decay of sixteenth century Paris, Ignatius found a diamond for God in Francis Xavier.

THE PRIEST OF GOD

A warm summer day and a band of happy friends—it was a day made for great undertakings. It was on this Assumption Day, 1534, that Xavier began his greatest undertaking—a new life. From the University of Paris to the little hill of Montmartre across the Seine journeyed a group of seven, Ignatius and Francis among them. Their recently ordained comrade, Peter Faber, said Mass, and all pledged themselves to the observance of certain vows. That August afternoon nourished the seeds that were to blossom into the world-encompassing Society of Jesus.

Francis was ordained shortly after, and spent a month preparing for his first Mass, an act that was typical of his intense zeal. He went about on the continent preaching the Gospel. Everywhere people were won over by his irresistible charm and keen sincerity. At thirty-two, his ceaseless, selfless labors had reduced him to a walking death—but one carrying the Source of all Life.

Xavier recovered, and when the cry of souls went up from India and echoed across the seas to Portugal, he rose to follow. How often must he have recalled the last spoken words he was ever to hear from Ignatius on earth, "Go, and set all on fire"! Xavier did go, and in becoming God's gallant conquistador, won countless souls for Christ.

XAVIER THE MISSIONARY

The first city to fall was Goa. There Xavier set foot in 1542, carrying his own baggage. There lived the Portuguese officials and traders who wore their Christian faith as their painted women wore their gaudy trinkets. No wonder the natives despised Christians! But it was not by denouncing these sinful men that Xavier began his mission, but by giving himself to the service of lepers and criminals, by walking the streets ringing a bell to call the people to catechism. For the children he loved so well he put Christianity into rhyme. And when his love had borne fruit, he moved on to the pearl fishers of Cape Comorin. They were a simple folk, who moved through a life filled with the living nightmares of devil and idol worship, necromancy, and Hindu fakirs. Xavier rescued them from their confused world, and brought the entire caste into the bosom of the Church.

Xavier's life as a missionary was one of love. What love he bore for his Saviour! How he loved his co-religious, whose signatures he wore, cut from their letters, over his heart along with a copy of his vows! Then there was the love of his little brothers and

CONQUISTADOR

This beautiful statue of St. Francis Xavier was given recently in memory of Father Gabriel G. Ryan, S.J., late member of the Fairfield University faculty, by his family. Standing beside the sisters whom he might lead home to God. Sometimes, when he climbed a banyan tree to preach, five or six thousand people would throng about him. He would pour out his fire and love until his voice had left him, would baptize until he could no longer lift his arm. In one month alone he converted ten thousand people in Southern India.

Xavier always considered Japan to be his land of promise. When he left, it was not to desert the Japanese, but to plan a new method of attack. Seeing the Japanese reverence for all that was Chinese, he saw that he must storm China to win Japan. China, a whole new empire, beckoned him at the age of forty-six. He was a visionary with a truly great vision—a world for Christ.

XAVIER THE SAINT

It was on the island of Sancian, across the bay from forbidden China, that Francis awaited a riverman to ferry him to the mainland. When the fever struck him, his mind was still busy with plans. The Great Planner, however, had other designs. On December 3, 1552, his eyes gazing on a crucifix, Xavier died. The light of the Indies went to join the Source of all light.

Xavier, the man, is dead. His body lies in the Basilica at Goa. But his restless spirit lives on in the thousands of religious who have risen to follow him, in the millions of Catholics in the Indies who live the faith he preached to their fathers, in us, the members of the Universal Church. The shadow of the Saint stretches across the far-reaching sands of the East.

JUNIOR YEAR

Wednesday, September, 1951 . . . we approach a step closer to that shining goal of ours, graduation . . . this is our Junior Year, the third obstacle we must hurdle in order to reach the finish line . . . Father Carty and Father Dooley, our new Principal and Dean of Men respectively, greet us at the Mass of the Holy Spirit in McAuliffe . . . back at Berchmans we meet our teachers, Fathers Foley, Gibson, Deevy, Hickey, Glavin, Reverend Messrs. Twomey, Murphy, Bernard Scully, Carr, Tetreau and Messrs. Gintoff, Joseph Scully, Yabrosky and Hanrahan . . . we elect Messrs. Mathews, Rousseau, Thomson, Gazdik, Tregger, Tracey, and Pannone to lead our homerooms . . . we begin our studies, in which we shall meet Cicero, Catiline, Lavoisier, Dalton and Judge Pyncheon . . . the courage and spirit of the football team in 2-7 record are remarkable . . . annual Football Hop . . . new ping pong table . . . annual Father and Son Football Banquet a great success . . . Jerry Starratt and Joe Samsel announced as 1952 Football co-captains . . . Christmas holiday begin . . . then repetitions, mid-years and an excellent retreat under Father Felix Talbot, S.J. . . . basketball team turns in 7-8 record . . . the Pre-Lenten dance . . . then spring with its Easter holidays . . . successful track season . . . the Dramatic Society presents Arsenic and Old Lace in Berchmans Auditorium . . . again we have repetitions and exams . . . prizes for excellence in studies in the respective homerooms, go to Messrs. Mathews, Rousseau, Thomson, Renoff, Larney, Vickers and Gardiner . . . having closed our books and held our class picnics, we bid each other adieu for awhile with a deep sense of satisfaction in our hearts and memories never to be forgotten.

By James Quinn

SENIOR YEAR

Spiritually speaking our senior year was most profitable. It began on September 11th with the traditional Mass of The Holy Spirit. From September 25th to November 6th the individual senior classes each made a closed retreat at Gonzaga Retreat House, Monroe, N. Y., under the direction of Fathers John Magan and Lloyd LaCombe, S.J. (See pages 82-83 for pictures). Other spiritual activities included a Mass commemorating the 400th Anniversary of the death of St. Francis Xavier and another during National Education Week at which the Glee Club sang. On December 17th the class made a holy hour. Several vocational lectures and sodality projects were also on the spiritual agenda of the year.

Looking at senior year from the cultural point of view, again it was not without accomplishment. As a result of the November elections Jerry Starratt became Senior President; Julius Gazdik, Vice-President; William Labrecque, Secretary and Art Pavlucik, Treasurer. Charles Duarte, Louis Pannone, Jerry Starratt, Joseph Samsel, Richard Thomson and Peter Die-mand were elected homeroom presidents. Robert Halapin, '54, was the winner of the upperclass oratorical contest. The combined efforts of the Glee Club and the Dramatic Society resulted in a fine production of H.M.S. Pinafore. The debating team was unusually active in inter-scholastic competition, in which Frank Mathews, Ronnie Gorton, George Gardiner and Richard Cox proved outstanding.

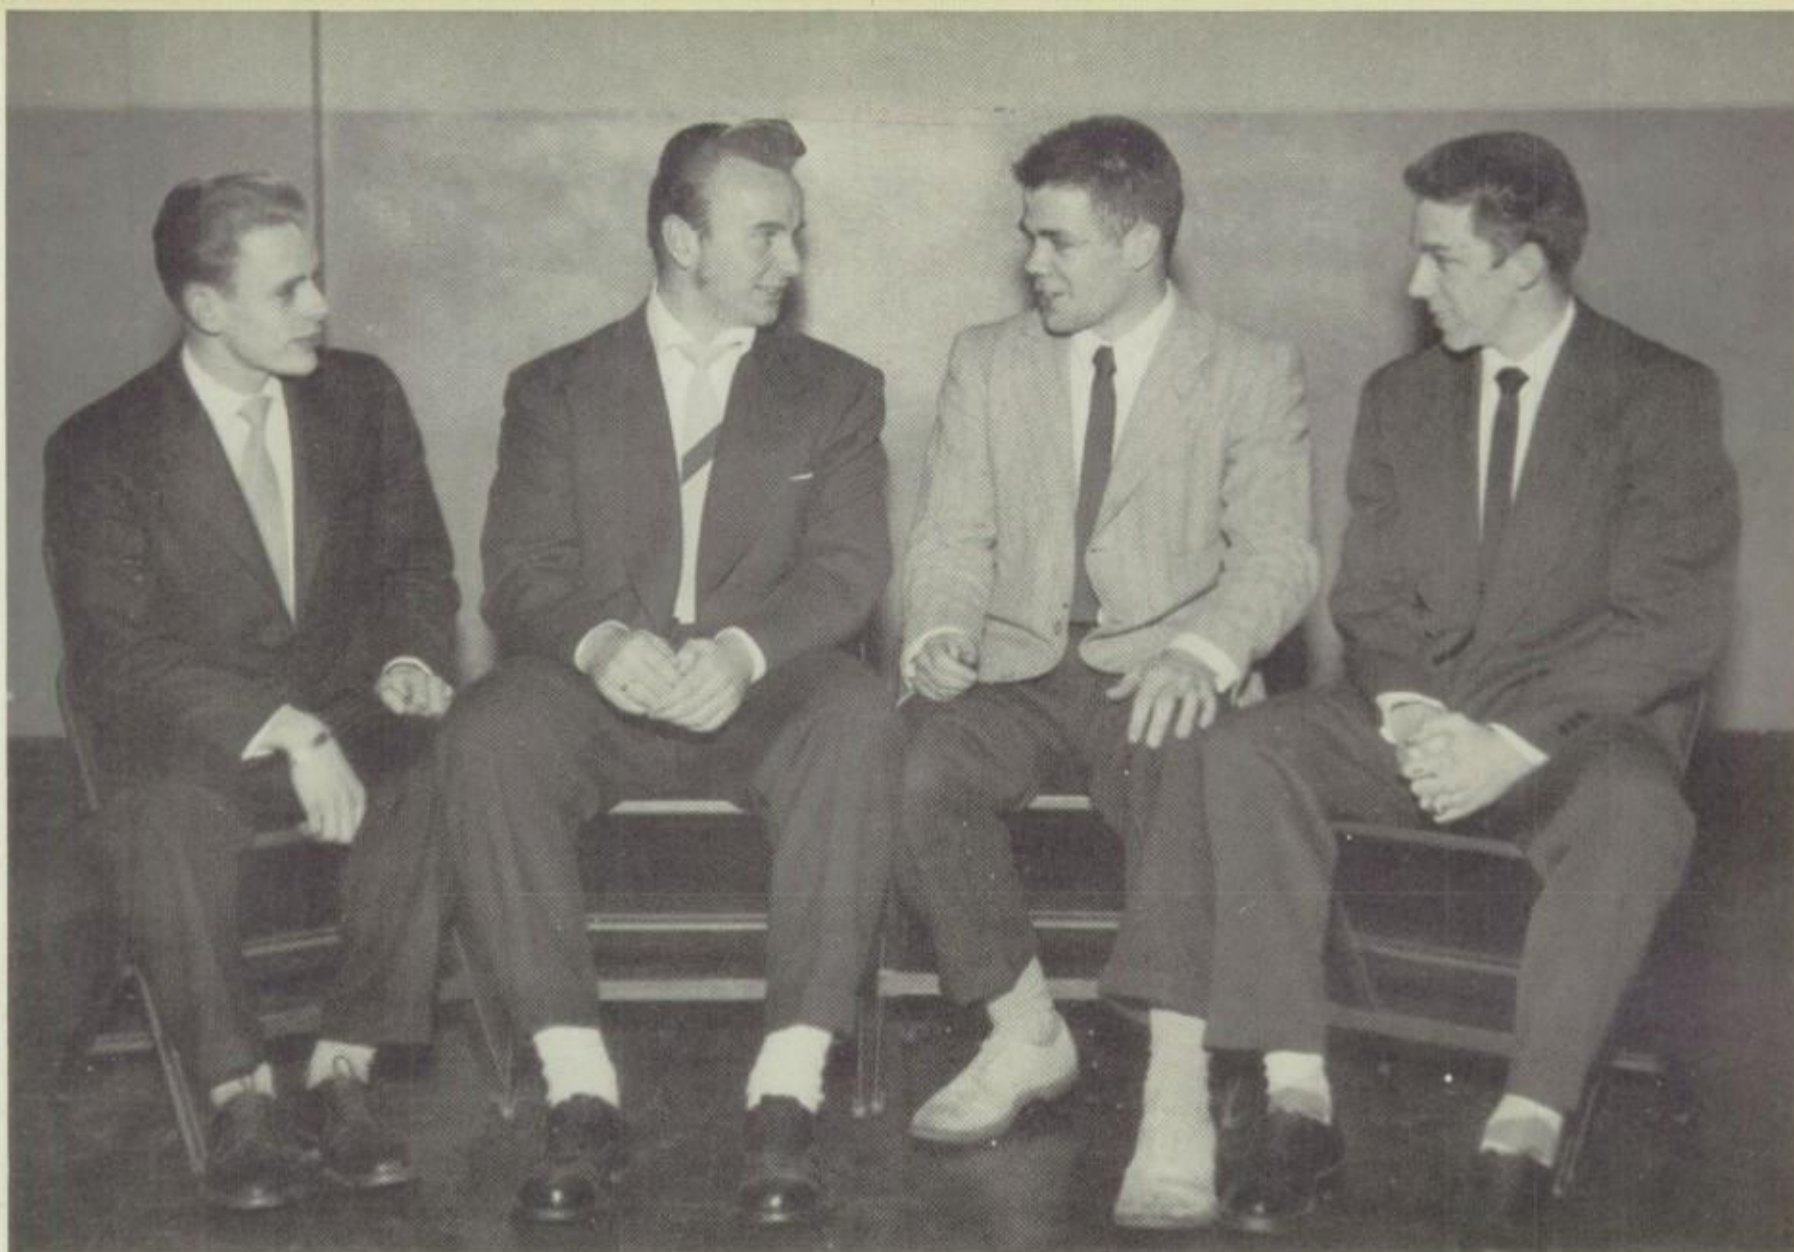

The following Post-Graduate students were our classmates during senior year: Charles A. Antonelli of Stamford, Joseph A. Evangelist of Seymour, William M. Flood of Bridgeport, Arthur W. Hannaway of East Haven, Nebi Hassan of Derby, John P. O'Shea of Waterbury, Anthony J. Bersutti of Ansonia and Judson J. Whitehead of Greenwich.

The sponsoring of a victory dance after the Milford Prep football game was something new in the annals of Prep. This, however, as well as the perennial social functions—the Football Hop, the Christmas and the Pre-Lenten dances were all a great success. The members of the football team, who won the district championship this year, were feted at the annual Father and Son banquet.

Other accomplishments of the Prep athletic teams and the preparations for the Senior Prom and graduation all lie too far in the future for comment in this book.

However, we have tried to set down a few things at least, to serve as a framework upon which you may build your mansion of memories in the years to come. It was truly spoken that "what has been written in one language can be transposed only crudely into another"; thus our words must falter in setting down in this book those words and deeds which have long since been written in our hearts.

We are happy and proud to present here ROBERT JEROME STARRATT, President of the Senior Class. Jerry has been a fine student, a warm friend, Co-Captain of the 1952 football team and a point winner on the track squad. He is the President of the St. Catherine's C.Y.O. in Riverside, his home town.

SENIOR A

Our final year at Prep was completed under the supervision of Father Joseph Murphy, who taught us Latin, Greek and English. Father Kennedy and Mr. James Hanrahan guided us in mathematics and Father Thomas Murphy in religion. Reverend Mr. Reddy, Mr. Yabrosky and Mr. Mahan were our modern language instructors, while Father Fayne guided us in speech.

Several members of 4A were leaders in extra-curricular activities. Chris Fox was Prefect of the Sodality; Hugh Humphrey and Ronnie Gorton were Co-Editors of the B.Q.; Barry Curran was President of the Radio Playshop; and Fran Mathews was Editor of the 1953 Hearthstone, while Bill Keavy was Assistant Editor.

The following 4A men received honor cards at least once for academic work: Messrs. Christopher, Curran, Duarte, Fazzone, Fox, Gorton, Henderson, Humphrey, Kaulbach, Keavy, Mathews, Papp, Poeggel and Worrell.

The duties of class officers were capably administered by "Chuck" Duarte, President; Charlie Santangelo, Vice-President; Barry Curran, Secretary, and Bill Keavy, Treasurer.

Senior A was the winner of the intramural championship in senior year in football. Two members of the class played varsity football, Charlie Santangelo and "Chuck" Duarte. Art Pavlucik was captain of the basketball and baseball teams during the past year and Treasurer of the senior class.

The members of the 1953 class of 4A wish to extend to all their teachers sincere thanks for their understanding of our problems and their sympathetic guidance in the solution of them.

By Barry Curran

As the class of 4B looks back over its past year of education, it is most proud to claim such a fine group of teachers. Especially esteemed is its patient homeroom teacher, Rev. William W. Kennedy, S.J., who so nobly translated many a Latin idiom and solved the intricate problems of higher mathematics. Father Thomas Murphy taught us religion. English was learned by all through the strong efforts of Father Blatchford, and Speech was demonstrated by Father Fayne. The interesting mysteries of physics were revealed by Father Dutram, and Mr. Reddy led the class in its unique translations of German. Mr. Mahan taught some of us French.

Once again the able Louis Pannone was elected to the office of Class President. Aiding him as Vice-President was John Galluzzo. Honest Gene Fischer again became Treasurer, and David Turchik Secretary.

In extra-curricular activities the class of 4B was abundantly represented. Richard Cox was our quarrelsome debater. George Gardiner was elected President of both the Camera Club and the school band. The French Club chose Richard Veltri as President. Loyal serving for the Athletic Association were Emil Martin, John Salling, William Varnum and Richard Veltri. Our Hearthstone workers were Messrs. Gardiner, Jensen, Martin, Peck, Quinn, Turchik, and Veltri.

Those who received honors for their scholastic work were Messrs. Card, Cox, Galluzzo, Gardiner, Jensen, Kirk, Martin, Morey, Peck, Quinn, Sherry, Turchik, and Veltri.

Our sincere thanks to our Deans and to our teachers for their labors in our behalf.

By Emil Martin

SENIOR C

As the sun sets and shadowy twilight creeps into our senior year, we, the members of 4-C, would like to express our gratitude to the teachers who labored so diligently and untiringly with us in this our senior year: Father Thomas Murphy in religion; Father Fayne in Latin, English, and speech; Father Dutram in physics; Mr. Hanrahan in mathematics; Mr. Yabrosky in Spanish; and, of course, Father Ryan, who was our homeroom teacher prior to his illness in December.

During the year Jerry Starratt served as class president, while the entire right side of the Prep line filled the remaining three elective offices: Julius Gazdik, vice-president; Bert Furgess, secretary, and Eddie Caliando, treasurer.

Two of the class officers, Jerry Starratt and "Gus" Gazdik, also did fine jobs in their positions as president and vice-president respectively of the senior class.

Our intellectual bright lights who drew honors at least once during the first semester included: Barry, Gross, Gazdik, Larney, Serena, and Starratt.

In addition to the four aforementioned football players, we contributed other athletes to the Red and White's usually winning cause. Lou Zuffa and Carl Giordano were two additional football players. Dick Noble performed well on the basketball team, Ron Grosso did a creditable job at shortstop for the baseball squad, and Bob Skane established a few records running for the track team.

As we approach graduation, there is probably sorrow in our hearts at the thought of leaving behind old friends and traditions. But we shall not leave the school entirely, for a part of it will always remain with us in our thoughts and our accomplishments.

By Dennis Larney

SENIOR C: First Row—J. Cosgrove, R. O'Mahony, F. Ulbrick, D. Krenisky, J. Sedensky, Fr. Ryan, J. Gardella, W. McQuillan, T. Fitzgibbon, R. Grosso, K. Duffy (withdrew). Second Row—J. Kovacs, B. Furgess, T. Conville, D. Larney, C. Giordano, F. Giannino, R. Pelletier, R. Serena, T. Coughlin, W. Mulligan, R. Starratt. Third Row—R. Skane, H. Burr, R. Jagoe, E. Caliando, E. Pistey, L. Zuffa, E. Cieplinski, R. Jontos, J. Gazdik. Absent: A. Barry, T. Downs, P. Laszlo, R. Noble and R. Prescott.

SENIOR D: First Row—N. Rousseau, N. Serencha, R. Cooney, J. Franko, R. Grenier, Fr. Dutram, T. Colangelo, J. Grogan, A. Vallez, A. Esposito, E. Dunn. Second Row—E. Brennan, J. O'Sullivan, W. Labrecque, G. Bonney, D. Miko, J. Rourke, R. Lisi, J. Kline, W. Shanley, R. LeBlanc, G. Fox, W. Brown, A. Prevost. Third Row—R. Kerkes, G. Myers, J. Santini, L. Beresnyak, F. Rowan, R. Jossick, J. Farrell, H. Scopp, T. King, J. Lukach, J. Samsel, J. Leeney, J. Renzulli.

June is fast approaching and it is with both sadness and joy that we make our last few journeys to Prep. But before we depart we wish to thank all our teachers throughout our four years for their excellent help and guidance. We, the members of 4-D, especially wish to thank all our senior teachers: Father Dutram, our homeroom teacher, who labored to teach "the crowd" the laws of physics; Father Ruddy who impressed upon us the true culture of Latin and English literatures; Father Kennedy who toiled with us in math; Father Thomas Murphy, our religion teacher; Father Fayne our instructor in speech; and last, but not least, Mr. Mahan who taught us "La Parure."

During this last year Joe Samsel held the office of class president while he was assisted ably by "veep" Walter Shanley. Al "Virgil" Prevost wrote the class notes and honest Norm Rousseau was elected treasurer.

We wish to congratulate the members of our room who have starred for Prep on the athletic field: Joe Samsel, Joe Franko, Al Prevost, and Bob Jossick in football; Joe Samsel, Ed Brennan, and Dan Miko in basketball; and that stellar first baseman, "Betz" Beresnyak.

4-D is also proud of its eleven honor men, Edward Brennan, Robert LaBlanc, John Leeney, Richard Lisi, James Rourke, Norman Rousseau, Frank Rowan, Nicholas Serencha, Thomas King, James Kline, and Anthony Vallez.

We wish to congratulate also the many men from our class who have worked on extra-curricular activities such as Bill Labrecque, who was senior class secretary, and Ted Colangelo, the vice-president of the Camera Club, only to mention a few.

By Norman Rousseau

After four years at Prep we are reaching that goal, that end for which we have so long been striving. But is it an end? For many of us it is just the beginning,—the beginning of our college education, the beginning of our vocation in life, the beginning of our manhood. We, the members of 4E, want to thank the capable teachers who have guided us in the past and especially those who gave us our final preparation: Father Ruddy, who instructed us in Latin and English, Father Thomas Murphy, who explained the truths of our religion, Father Dutram, who expounded the laws of physics, Father Fayne, who gave us training in speech, Mr. Yabrosky, who taught us math and Spanish, and finally Mr. Mahan, who was our guide in French.

During the year our executive department was led by Dick Thomson, while Ray McDonnell took over in his absence. These men were ably assisted by Bob Tregger, who wrote the class notes, and Mike Trimpert, who handled the revenue.

The versatility of the class is manifested in two ways. First we have eight honor men who received awards during the year. They are: Mike Trimpert, Tom Keaveny, Dick Renoff, Ron Soltis, Ray McDonnell, Bernard Pitz, Ronald Naves, and Dick Thomson. Secondly, on the field of athletics we have three men, Bernie Pitz in football, Dan Menilli in basketball, and Ron Soltis in track. In addition to this, we have two men to be congratulated for their fine work in the scholarship department. They are Mike Trimpert, who received an appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, and Tom Keaveny, who won the NROTC scholarship and his choice of many colleges.

SENIOR F

As we come to the end of our final year at Fairfield Prep, we can look back on our four years with satisfaction and gratification. For this feeling we can thank Father Blatchford, who instructed us in Latin and English and who was our homeroom teacher; Father Thomas Murphy, who labored diligently to teach us religion and who helped us determine our vocations in life; Father Fayne, our speech instructor; Rev. Mr. Grant, who helped us learn physics; Rev. Mr. Reddy, who taught us German; Mr. James Hanrahan, who instructed us in mathematics, assisted by Father William Kennedy, who taught us solid geometry in the second semester.

The officers of the class were Pete Diemand, President; Jack Tracey, Vice-President; Dan Philbin, Secretary; and Ken Catandella, Treasurer.

Ken Catandella was our outstanding contribution to the Dramatic Society and the business staff of the Hearthstone. Pete Diemand was a member of the golf team and Gordon Willard of the tennis team. Tony Copertino and Andy Cretella were our donations to the basketball team. Bob Guman was the leader of his own band and a member of the school orchestra. Al Karg wrote articles for the Bellarmino Quarterly and the Hearthstone.

Honor men in studies were Messrs. Deer, Vickers, Philbin, Richardson, Diemand, Pinciario, Fagan, Olender, Karg, and Visokay.

The final prize and goal is near at hand and we wish to thank all who have in any way helped us to accomplish this objective, especially our understanding teachers and parents.

OUR LADY'S

Per Mariam ad Iesum

Our Lady's Sodality, under the capable guidance of Father Thomas Murphy, is the center of religious activity at Prep and is considered foremost among all student organizations. Its principal aim is to foster a deeper love of Mary in its members, while it is ever mindful of the spiritual needs of all the students.

Perhaps the greatest spiritual experience in the lives of the seniors took place at the Gonzaga Retreat House in Monroe, New York, this year. Each retreatant was given ample time to review his past life, as well as to pray for guidance in the future, something which is so necessary in the world today.

The Sodality sponsored a most inspiring Vocational Week this past March. Displays from forty-five religious orders were exhibited in Berchmans Auditorium as a means of fostering vocations among Prep students. School projects, such as the Knights of the Blessed Sacrament and the generous student support of the Jesuit Foreign Missions, were conducted very successfully during the year.

Sodality officers were appointed early in the year by the moderator. Christopher Fox served as Prefect, while Donald Turlick and Barry Curran acted as Treasurer and Secretary. The various committees, including the Apostolic, Marian, Eucharistic and Publicity Committees, were headed by Daniel Jensen, Hugh Humphrey, Francis Mathews and David Turchik.

In May, the probation class of the Sodality was accepted into the service of Our Lady. Having been thoroughly trained by Rev. Mr. O'Toole, the members received their diplomas and were now ready to enjoy all the privileges and share the obligations of true Sodalists.

In conclusion, the entire senior class wishes to express our deepest thanks to Father Thomas Murphy for the work he did in making our retreat and other spiritual activities such a success.

" . . . That's all for today, boys. Remember—this section has to be ready to give to the printer soon, so work hard during the week!"

Such was the familiar cry of THE HEARTHSTONE'S moderator, Father Joseph Murphy. The staff did work hard—putting out a good yearbook requires a lot of hard work. It means planning the book; it means getting the pictures; it means getting stories and facts about people and places; it means getting material written and in the printer's hands on time; it means that every member of the staff must give of his time to participate in the unity and teamwork which are necessary for the production of a good yearbook.

Early in the year, the members of the Literary Staff elected Fran Mathews to the post of Editor-in-Chief, and Bill Keavy Assistant Editor. George Gardiner was appointed Photographic Editor. Then the assignments were given out: the write-ups, the diary, the theme, the various school activities and sports; pictures had to be taken, pages had to be planned, proofs had to be read, and many other small chores had to be done.

While all this was going on, the Business Staff, under the guidance of Rev. Mr. Reddy, was keeping itself busy collecting the money and getting the ads which would help to pay for the book.

The theme of our yearbook is the anniversary of the death of Saint Francis Xaxier, the great Jesuit priest. He died just 400 years ago, in 1552. This year's HEARTHSTONE has been dedicated to Very Rev. Joseph D. FitzGerald, S.J., the Rector of Fairfield University. A feature of the book is the initiation of color on sixteen of the pages. Another novelty this year was the presence of several members of the Junior Class on the staff to gain experience for next year.

The senior section of THE HEARTHSTONE was in the printer's hands shortly after the New Year. The activities and sports followed a month or so later. By the time March rolled around, when the ads and incidental pages were in, we were able to sit back and relax, while waiting for the fruits of our labor to be harvested.

Actually, we had a lot of fun working together on this project. Many years from now we will thumb through the pages of THE 1953 HEARTHSTONE, and recall with pleasure many of the happy memories of our days at Fairfield Prep.

the Bellarmine Quarterly

The pages of Prep's award-winning publication, THE BELLARMINE QUARTERLY, contain literature in almost all its forms. For its eleventh year the B.Q. has published some fine writings—stories, poems, essays, news articles—penned by Prep men. Each of the thirty-six staff members contributed; each of the staff members was responsible for his part in the magazine; each deserves a share of any laudatory comments the B.Q. receives.

To the merely casual reader, the 1952-53 B.Q. appeared dressed in a colorful jacket with an original format and content, providing a medium for the writing talents of Prep's students and for a coverage of Prep's activities.

Behind each issue of the B.Q., however, there is a tremendous, though rarely appreciated, task to be performed—from the handing out of the first assignments to the last proofing of the pages. "Double toil and trouble," said Shakespeare; and it is just that.

Stepping closer for a look at the Prep men who make each issue of the B.Q., the reader found at the top of the staff page the names of the co-editors, Ronald Gorton and Hugh Humphrey. Under the supervision of Father Bernard Murphy, S.J., and his assistant, Rev. Mr. Richard Twomey, S.J., these two shared the responsibility for the publication of each issue.

Examination of the B.Q. by a scrutinous eye found the sparkling writings of Francis Mathews, who is distinguished, moreover, by his four year record as a staff member; the sometimes humorous, always thoughtful polls conducted by Daniel Jensen; the well-done Exchange column of James Rourke, also a story contributor; the fine articles of Norman Rousseau; and Martin Reidy's coverage of the Prep world of sport. George Gardiner and Theodore Colangelo illustrated many a story and page with their photos.

Financing the B.Q. was a big job, ably performed by the advertising staff, and sparked by the enthusiasm of Gordon Willard, the manager. Joseph Callahan, manager of the business staff, kept the books and contracts and wrote up the ads for each issue.

The 1952-53 staff published four issues as full of quality as any of the previous two years' publications, which were awarded the First Place rating in its division of 750 to 1,000 enrollment by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. The B.Q. has also received the All-Catholic award in the same two years from the Catholic Scholastic Press Association.

This year's members leave a rich legacy to their successors and wish that they and B.Q. staffs in the future will enjoy all possible success.

On the nights of May 2nd and 3rd, 1952, the Players of Fairfield Prep presented Arsenic And Old Lace, a comedy written by Joseph Kesserling. Since the 1952 HEARTHSTONE had gone to press long before this time, we take this opportunity to report the production of last season.

The production set three precedents. It was the first play to be shown here on the Prep campus, since all other productions of major importance had been staged at the Klein Memorial Auditorium in Bridgeport. Secondly, it was the only production for which a set had been designed especially for the Prep stage. This play established a third precedent in being the first Prep play to have run for two nights.

The play was well received by a very enthusiastic audience.

At the time this book went to press (late February), preparations were well under way on the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta H.M.S. Pinafore. The Dramatic Society and the Prep Glee Club, which sang at several football rallies and Bellarmine Guild meetings, were being combined in this ambitious effort under the direction of Rev. Mr. Kiley and Mr. George Thomas, Prep '48. Mr. Thomas had a leading role in the Dramatic Society production of 1948, and is now a member of the faculty.

Members of the Class of 1953 who have leading roles in the current production are Frederick Poeggel,

TIC SOCIETY

Mr. Raymond O'Hara of the lay faculty and Rev. Mr. Kiley directed the play with admirable skill, while the business details were ably handled by Rev. Mr. Carr.

Principal roles were played by the following members of the Class of 1953: Thomas Keaveny, Ronald Gorton, Jerome Peeler and Kenneth Catandella. We should also mention the fine performance of Robert Davidson, Walter Young, Thaddeus Figlock, Philip Goscienski, William Mottolese, Charles Jensen and Arthur Conway of the Class of 1952, and of Peter Suto and Michael Catalano of the present Junior Class.

For the year 1952-53, the Junior-Senior Debating Society received two moderators, a new name, and a new subject to discuss. Originally under the guidance of Fr. J. Joseph Ryan, until illness forced him to withdraw, the society received a new moderator in January, Rev. Mr. Albert Reddy. The debaters were regretful at losing so fine a moderator as Fr. Ryan, but were confident of excellent guidance by Mr. Reddy.

Although known for some time as the Junior-Senior Debating Society, this year a new name was chosen, The Chrysostom Debating Society, in honor of St. John Chrysostom. The subject for the year was the topic, "Resolved: That the Atlantic Pact Nations Should Form a Federal Union."

Into a heavy and quite successful schedule have gone several debates with Lauralton Hall, Mother of God Academy, Stratford High, and out of town to Stamford High, St. Peter's Prep in New Jersey, and Boston College High. Tournaments, also, are on the list at Fordham and in Storrs, Connecticut.

Innovation has entered the lower class ranks, too, as the sophomore and freshman societies were consolidated this year, under the direction of Rev. Mr. Dewing.

The large membership provided a great stimulus as the club met regularly to discuss issues of local or international importance. Special coaching was also provided by Mr. Dewing in the art of becoming a good debater.

Members of the group were looking forward eagerly to the final outcome of the Prize Debate, scheduled for March. From this group will come Prep's future debating champions.

The officers for the past year were Richard Baxa, President; Norman Kramer, Vice-President; and William Zaczkowski, Secretary.

The Prep Camera Club finished another successful year under the able guidance of Rev. Mr. O'Toole. During the fall term each bimonthly meeting was marked by a small contest for which a special subject area was chosen at each meeting. One large, open contest, for which everyone in the school was eligible, closed the semester. Then, for the second semester, emphasis was laid upon lectures, such as the lecture given by Joseph Stumpf on the control of graininess, and another on the use of filters delivered by Joseph Brown. From the instructions in developing and printing, given by Ronny Soltis and Ted Colangelo, the less-experienced members received the help they needed to improve their photos. In addition, each member had the chance to show his skill in snapping pictures during the group field trips that were planned. The officers are shown above.

The Playshop has become increasingly popular since it was founded in 1945. For the past four years it has been under the capable moderatorship of Father Fayne, S.J.

This past year's program included three scrips broadcast over Station WNAB, "Let Your Light So Shine," the story of the fight against yellow fever, "The Perfect Tribute," the story of Abraham Lincoln, and a script in honor of St. Francis Xavier's anniversary, the theme of the 1953 HEARTHSTONE.

The Technical Department was also busy acquiring new records and equipment. This year a recording machine was installed.

SCIENCE CLUB

Second semester witnessed the founding of a new Prep organization: the Science club. This Club seems to fill a long-felt need of Prep students, many of whom ambition a career in either theoretical or practical science, like research or engineering. It proposes to assist these students in choosing the precise profession to which to aspire by familiarizing them with both the scholastic preparation required and the nature of the professional work after graduation from college. Lectures by professional men, student symposia, and private study help to realize this aim of the Club.

The Science Club also endeavors to give the members assistance in selecting the college best suited to their career and to their financial means. One of the Club's first projects was a tour of the science departments of Fordham University and the engineering departments of Manhattan College.

Prep's Science Club is affiliated with the Science Clubs of America, and will participate with other clubs all over the nation in Science Fairs and Talent Searches. The initial officers were Henry Olender (President); Walter Fitzgerald (Vice-President); Ronald Soltis (Secretary) and William Fisher (Treasurer). Rev. Mr. O'Toole was moderator.

The concert band was reorganized and received new uniforms this year. The effects of this change were amazing. When the band appeared on the football field in their red and blue uniforms at one of the early football rallies, it was enthusiastically received and supported by the student body.

Part of the credit for the football team's successful season was due to the spirit inspired by the band.

This good appearance did not come about without a great deal of hard work on the part of Fr. Carty and Rev. Mr. Reddy, S.J., the director Mr. Fred Bayers, and the members of the band itself. The concert band is well deserving of our praise and our thanks for the effort they have put into the long rehearsals, which were imperative to reach the success the band has attained this past season.

There are many sports played in every high school athletic program. Few(however, are as popular and well supported as football. This spirit for football is increased two-fold when a school has an All-District Championship Team, as Fairfield Prep had this past season. Capturing this title was not easy considering the fact that only the most powerful teams in the district were willing to play us. To complete our schedule, we were forced to invite five other teams from various parts of Connecticut and New York.

Most of the credit must be given to the fine coaching staff. To Mr. Seymour, an ex-Boston College player, who in his first year as coach has done a fine job, and to Mr. Yabrosky, who molded together one of the strongest high school lines in the state, are due the thanks of the Prep. Of course, they had to have the material to work with. Truly, Fairfield Prep had just the right boys for that. The two co-captains, Jerry Starratt and Joe Samsel, are deserving of our praise for leading the team to a victorious season. They had behind them a team of hard workers, four of whom were on the All-District Scholastic Team. They were Bert Furgess, center and Ed Caliendo, guard, (both seniors), Bob Marcoux, tackle and Jack Ringel, back, (both juniors).

Our first game of the season with Stratford High at Long Brook Park resulted in a 13 to 0 score in favor of Prep. Bob Marcoux recovered a fumble on the Stratford 22-yard line and three plays later Jack Ringel passed to "Chuck" Santangelo for the first touchdown. The second touchdown was made in the fourth quarter after a 60 yard march, when Santangelo bucked over the goal. Jerry Starratt aided greatly in this drive. Furgess did the converting.

We next met, on our own field, New Haven's Notre Dame team. Our 8 to 6 victory consisted in a safety. The Fairfield Prep team, upon receiving the ball on the kickoff, drove 51 yards to our first and only touchdown by Charlie Santangelo; the point was missed. Notre Dame tied the score in the second quarter. Bert Furgess saved Prep, when Notre Dame was again threatening to score, by intercepting a pass on our goal line. The Prepsters obtained their winning margin when a Notre Dame runner was brought down in his end-zone by Ed Caliendo and Mike Forte, both of whom played a great defensive game.

Prep was dealt its first defeat of the season by the strong Mount Saint Michael's team at their meeting in the Bronx. The Prep team fought hard, but a few interceptions and fumbles caused the Mount team to score the first touchdown. There was a constant battle from this point on by both teams. This continued for the next three quarters. But in the final minutes of the fourth quarter the Prepsters' defence collapsed. With the tiring of our best players, St. Michael's scores their last two touchdowns. This battle was, however, much more closely fought than the 18 to 0 score indicates.

The game that made the boys the happiest was the annual night game with Harding High at Hedges Memorial Stadium in Bridgeport. This 45 to 18 victory over Harding annexed the All-District Championship for us. The Prepsters entered this game minus the services of Charles Santangelo, who broke his collar bone in a pre-game scrimmage. Ringel and Starratt clicked for a net gain of 311 yards on the ground and 57 yards in the air. Harding scored the first touchdown, but this only goaded us into scoring. After a 65-yard drive Prep tied the score. We then tallied twenty points before the half. In the second period Jack Ringel scored two touchdowns. Jerry Starratt received the honor for the following T.D., when he went around his own end after an interception by Jay Dolan gave us possession of the ball. In the second half Prep scored four times, three times by Jack Ringel. The fourth was scored by the Prep center, Bert Furgess, when he intercepted a pass and went all the way to pay dirt. The extra points were kicked by Al Prevost. Harding scored their last two tallies when Coach Seymour sent our subs into the game.

Our next game was slated with St. Johns Prep of Brooklyn at our Alumni Field. Many were worried about our chances of winning; for the St. John's team had the reputation of being one of the best teams in New York. They were defeated only by Cardinal Hayes High. As it turned out, however, we piled up a score of 31 points before St. John's began to roll. Fairfield Prep traveled 56 yards for its first score. A 32-yard pass from Ringel to Forte and a 22-yard run by Jerry Starratt featured Prep's 75-yard drive, climaxed by Ringel's score. Later Joe Samsel, in a flat handoff, went all the way. In the second half Starratt recovered a fumble and on the next play Ringel went over for the score. Soon, after an interception and runback by the Fairfield boys, Jack Ringel scored the last touchdown. St. John's was able to break through our defences for two touchdowns. The final score was 31 to 14.

A week later we met, on our own field, Milford Prep. The game ended in a throttling of Milford 43 to 0. The main feature of the contest was the relentless rain. However, this did not hinder Jack Ringel. He scored twice in the game, once on a 49-yard race around end and the other after John Makarczyk recovered a Milford fumble. Ringel's pass to Makarczyk in the second half accounted for another tally, and portrayed Ringel's throwing skill. Dolan intercepted a pass and ran 55 yards until he was over the goal. Starratt also made a 46-yard run for a touchdown. The next touchdown was made by little Donald Dew, when he broke away and ran 55-yards to the end-zone. Halfback Jim Ryan made a spectacular run of 94 yards for the last Prep tally of the game. The extra points were ekicked by Charlie Duarte, first string guard.

The last, long-awaited game of the season with Stamford at Boyle Stadium; Thanksgiving Day, was our greatest heartbreak. We were truly at the peak after two weeks of preparation for the game. Our fumbles helped Stamford greatly. The score was 13 all at the half, after Ringel and Starratt each had scored one and Prevost kicked one good one. Something happened in the second half. Our boys fought their hardest to no avail. The final score was 26 to 13 in favor of Stamford. Our team, with its five wins and two losses, is to be congratulated for the fine example of sportsmanship they displayed, and for their courageous spirit during the entire campaign.

BASKETBALL

In early December, the Fairfield Prep basketball team was well geared to open the 1952-53 season. After weeks of practice under the tutelage of their new and zealous coach, Mr. George Bisacca, Prep '46, the team had developed into a fine-working basketball machine.

In their debut the Prepsters showed mid-season form by defeating a star-studded alumni team 53-42 with Captain Art Pavlucik leading the way with 21 points. Despite this impressive victory, the Prep team was considerably weakened by the ankle injury of Dan Miko, which sidelined him for five weeks. This was the first in a series of bad breaks which plagued the Prep cagers all season long.

In the second game, minus the services of Miko, the Prep hoopmen were defeated by Bullard-Havens by a 54-45 score despite the efforts of Joe Samsel and Art Pavlucik who scored 12 and 9 points respectively. During this tilt the Fairfield team was again weakened as the result of a broken hand which Martin received, an injury which would keep

The Prep cagers then won their second victory in three starts by trouncing Stamford 56-43 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, with the keen-eyed Pavlucik finding the range for 16 points followed by Dick Noble with 14 and Vin Martin with 13.

The Bisaccamen split the next two encounters. We lost to the great Stratford High team 56-49 with Art Pavlucik (17) and Bob Brennan (16) hitting double figures for Prep. In the second game, led by the ambidextrous Bob Brennan and their brilliant captain, Art Pavlucik, who garnered 17 and 11 points respectively, the Prepsters rolled over Staples 45-33.

Breaking the old record of 70 points in a single game, the Prep cagers romped over Milford Prep 71-36. Brennan and Pavlucik shared scoring honors with 15 points each, while Dan Miko, playing his first game since his injury, contributed 12 points to the one-sided triumph.

After leading all the way Prep lost a thriller to Roger Ludlowe 52-49. Noble and Pavlucik were the ring-leaders in scoring for the Red and White with 12 points each. Dan Miko also hit double figures with ten points.

Leading from the opening whistle, the Prep cagers turned back Hopkins School of New Haven 63-48 to rack up their fifth win in eight starts. Pavlucik and Miko were the scoring kingpins for Fairfield with 19 points each, followed by Brennan who hit the hoops for 12 tallies.

Notre Dame High school of West Haven nipped Prep 46-44 in a close battle, rallying in the final period after Capt. Art Pavlucik was forced to leave the game with an injured ankle. When the brilliant play-maker left, he had 13 points and Prep was leading by seven. Brennan and Miko also hit double figures with 16 and 10 points respectively.

Despite high-scoring Pavlucik's loss, the Fairfield hoopmen won a return match with Bullard-Havens by holding Joe Colello, the district's top scorer, to 13 points. Dan Miko, who garnered 18 points, and Dick Noble, who registered 16, were the standouts in giving Prep its sixth win in ten starts.

Harding High, one of the district's top teams, by hitting on seventy percent of their foul shots, subdued our Fairfield lads by a 67-52 score. Bob Brennan led all scorers by racking up twenty-one points.

A third period scoring surge by the Fairfield University Freshmen enabled them to beat Prep 56-38 and to remain undefeated. Dan Miko and Vin Martin were our big guns with eleven and eight points respectively. This was Vin's first appearance since his injury back in December. Then followed a second defeat by Notre Dame High by a 55-43 score. Art Pavlucik returned to the active list and shared scoring honors with Bob Brennan (eleven points each). Coach Bisacca then played the substitutes in the second Stamford game, which we lost by a 61-48 score. Ronnie Liptak scored seventeen points. A sophomore-dominated Prep team then beat Staples High 44-31. We ended the season with an important game with high-gearred Stratford High, and beat them in an upset 57-51. Art Pavlucik was the star of the game and high scorer with 15 points. The J.V.'s and freshmen also won to make it a clean sweep against Stratford.

TRACK TEAM 1952

The 1952 track team proved to be the second most victorious in Prep's history. Winning four of our meets while suffering three setbacks, Prep maintained a better than .500 average for the second season in a row.

In our first meet Prep rolled over Milford High with Tom Hickey (440 yard run), Dan Miko (Pole vault), Gene Pulaski (Discus), Jack Barnwell (Javelin), and Julius Gazdik (Shot Put) each taking home a first place, while Bob Skane registered two wins in the mile and the half-mile.

In our second meet we invaded Stamford and with revenge in our eyes we sought to defeat the 1951 State Champions. That afternoon we won only two and a half first places, with Hickey, Barnwell, and Miko (tie) showing the way, but nevertheless we managed to stay within three points of the lead until the last event, the all-important relay race. Then Izzarelli, Holahan, Starratt and Hickey came through with the chips down to win the race and the meet.

In our next two meets we were defeated by a powerful Harding squad and by Greenwich, although we came back to trounce Stratford and Staples on our own field. In our last meet of the season we suffered defeat at the hands of Roger Ludlowe. Throughout all of these meets, Jerry Starratt (Half-Mile), Bob Skane (Mile), Dan Miko, Tom Hickey, Jack Barnwell, Julius Gazdik, Gene Pulaski, John Card (High Jump), Ed Holahan (Half Mile), Art Pavlucik (High Jump and Pole Vault) and Dick Noble (Broad Jump) continued to star as they went on winning first places.

Outstanding performances were turned in on May 24th, 1952, in Fairfield University's first annual Invitational High School Track Meet, by Dan Miko as he took first place in the pole vault, by Dick Noble as he won the broad jump, and by John Card as he captured first place in the high jump. These are just a sample of the bigger and better things that are to be expected of the 1953 track team.

By Norman Rousseau

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross Country this past year was directed by Father Blatchford, who in the past few years had been Moderator of the Boston College High School Squad.

With only two lettermen to work, Bob Skane and Rene Grenier, the going was not easy. We gained, however, valuable experience for future years.

Meets were held with Ludlowe (25-30), Harding (twice—24-31 and 15-40), Stratford (twice—25-30 and 31-24), Danbury (23-32), Fordham Prep (15-40) and Greenwich (16-39). The team with the lower score won.

Bill Shaughnessy and Don Iodice won medals in a meet held in New York. Our best runner for the season was Bob Skane. Other high scorers were Lane, Card, Shaughnessy, Grenier, Hart, Ferrer and Labrecque. Seniors on the squad were: Skane, Grenier, Colangelo, Lane, Card, Soltis, Holinko and Labrecque.

TENNIS

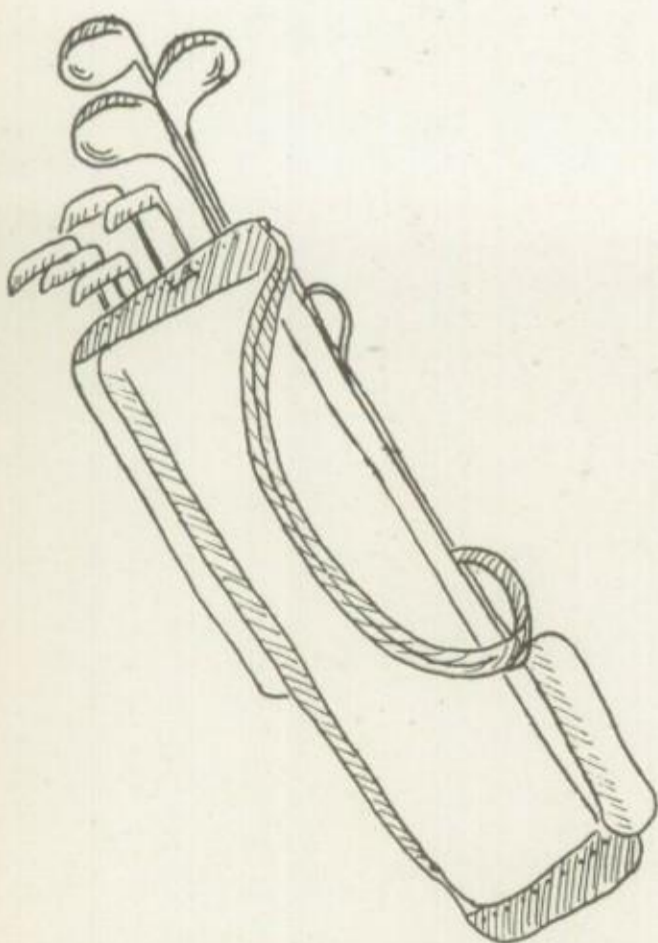

Left to right—Bob Buccino, '55, Phil Carroll, '52, Rev. Mr. Allen (Moderator), Hugh Humphrey, '53, and Peter De Marco, '52. The team won three matches and lost eight. We beat Stratford High twice and Staples High once.

GOLF

Left to right—Ross Emeneger, '52 (over the ball), Peter Diemand, '53, John Crichto '52, and Bob Papp, '53. The team won four matches, tied two and lost one. We beat Ludlowe High, Stamford High, Danbury High, and Greenwich High. Our only loss was to Greenwich.
